

SOUTHAMPTON CONCERT WIND BAND

Southampton Concert Wind Band takes you Out of This World with a stunning show of music that will leave you starry-eyed. We are delighted to welcome two guest soloists onto the stage. Lizzie Rowland (Trombone) will perform Heroic Étude, composed by the band's Patron, Rob Wiffin. You will also hear Alfie Perrott (Alto Saxophone) play music from the movie score by John Williams, Catch Me if You Can.

SCWB will produce their own stratospheric sounds with a couple of Holst's planets, selections from the film ET, as well as Thunderbirds, Dr. Who and Star Trek teleported in for good measure. With many more firm favourites, SCWB phasers are set to stun!

HAMPSHIRE AND®
ISLE OF WIGHT
AIR AMBULANCE

This is a fundraising concert, with all profits going directly to the Hampshire and Isle of Wight Air Ambulance service. With your support, this emergency service brings exceptional critical care to all people in our local communities.

Southampton Concert Wind Band is a thriving organisation, playing an active part in the amateur musical community. It has shared the concert stage with a variety of musical partners, ranging from wind bands to brass bands; choirs to international virtuosi. As well as regular concert and bandstand appearances, SCWB has, in recent times, participated in wind band festivals, achieving eight Platinum Awards.
